

NRA Trainers' Catalog 2010

1. This catalog shows current-year prices. Materials and prices subject to change without notice.
2. All orders must be placed either online (<http://materials.nrahq.org/go>) or telephone, Monday through Friday, 8:30 am – 8:00 pm (1-800-336-7402), using a credit card. Outside of US call 1-301-577-7550 to place your order.
3. Be certain shipping information is complete and to include your trainer ID number and expiration date.
4. Plan ahead! Allow 3-4 weeks for delivery. Plan to have materials arrive at least 2 weeks prior to your course.
5. Check order for accuracy and completeness immediately upon receipt.
6. All free-of-charge merchandise is subject to quantity limits and shipping charges.
7. Instructors and training counselors may only order student and instructor candidate packets for the disciplines in which they hold appropriate ratings.
8. Entire packets can be returned for credit. Partial packets cannot be returned for refund. Refunds are for merchandise only, not shipping and handling.
9. All returns must be made within 60 days of receipt of merchandise and must be made in sellable condition.
10. All returned items should be sent to the following address and accompanied by the original packing slip: NRA Program Materials Fulfillment Center, Returns Department, 4901 Forbes Blvd., Suite 102, Lanham, MD 20706.

Please refer to the section entitled Refuse To Be A Victim® and Women On Target® to order materials for these programs.

As an NRA Trainer, what materials do I need to conduct the basic courses?

- You will need to have one set of lesson plans, wall charts, and a student packet for each discipline you will be teaching.

NR40830EF13110

- You will also need to supply each student in your class with the Basic Course Student Packet for the discipline you are covering. Most packets include an NRA basic handbook, the appropriate completion certificate, a Gun Safety Rules brochure, a Basic Firearm Training Program brochure, a basic practical rocker, the appropriate student exam, and a Winchester/NRA Marksmanship Qualification Program booklet.

FIRST Steps lesson plans and participant packets are available only for Pistol, Rifle, and Shotgun courses. When you are teaching a FIRST Steps course, you will need one set of FIRST Steps lesson plans (specific to the discipline you are covering) for yourself, and one FIRST Steps Participant Packet and course registration card for each participant. FIRST Steps Participant Packets include an NRA basic handbook, the appropriate completion certificate, a Gun Safety Rules brochure, a Basic Firearm Training Program brochure, a Winchester/NRA Marksmanship Qualification Program booklet, and a basic practical rocker.

- You will need to report each basic course you teach at www.nrainstructors.org.
- You may also want to supply each student with a Student Registration Card (item #EF 13540) and a Basic Course Completion Card (item #ES 26848).

As an NRA-appointed Training Counselor, what materials do I need to order to train instructors?

You will need to supply each instructor candidate with the following items:

- NRA Trainer's Guide (item #EF 13530)
- NRA Instructor Candidate Packet (item # depends on which discipline is being taught, see pages 5 and 6). Includes instructor's course outline/lesson plans, the appropriate FIRST Steps lesson plans, and the appropriate instructor application/examination, Trainers Exam, Basic Course Report Form (item #TT 14685, NRA Instructor/RSO Application form and a catalog for NRA Trainers – (reloading course contents slightly different).
- NRA Basic Course Student Packet (item # depends on which discipline is being taught, see pages 3 and 4)
- Instructor Course Completion Cards (item #TT 14690)
- You will also want to have wall charts for display during your instructor courses. We do encourage you to provide these items to instructor candidates as well!
- You will also need to report your instructor training course at www.nrainstructors.org.
