

Welcome to NRA Adaptive Shooting Programs

NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA EDUCATION & TRAINING DIVISION

PROVIDING YOU WITH...

- The basic knowledge, skills, and attitude necessary to work with members of the disabled community in developing and achieving shooting sports related goals
- Assistance in the planning and conducting of courses that can accommodate members of the disabled community
- Resources and contacts available to support YOU

AT YOUR SERVICE...
DR. JOSEPH LOGAR, PT, DPT

- Tel: 703-267-1431 Fax: 703-267-3999
Email: adaptiveshooting@nrahq.org
- Doctor of Physical Therapy
- Licensed in Virginia by the Virginia Board of Physical Therapy
- NRA Certified Pistol Instructor, Level 1 Rifle Coach, Level 1 Shotgun Coach and Training Counselor
- Ten years experience working in Acute Care, Outpatient, Post-operative care, Workers Compensation and Rehabilitation
- Veteran of the United States Navy

COMING SOON...

Materials and presentations to assist YOU when working with members of the disabled community

- Introduction to Disability Etiquette
- Introduction to Spinal Cord Injury (SCI)
- Introduction to Adaptive Equipment
- Shotgun Shooting Techniques for Wheelchair Users
- Concealed carry Options for Wheelchair User
- Hunting opportunities for people with disabilities

LET'S HEAR FROM YOU

These Programs will be HIGHLY successful in direct proportion to the active participation of our front line NRA Instructors - YOU.

Contact JOSEPH LOGAR and his team with your input, experiences and needs. Help us help you.

Email us at: adaptiveshooting@nrahq.org

